www.quizlet.com – good for vocab revision

On the public area for languages on the website you can access the sample papers and other exam style tasks and task magic vocab tasks for specific vocab help.

The secret is little and often and practice the styles of exams and make sure you know what is expected of you for each style of question.

Practise your speaking questions at home – but also make sure you can simply answer the question with a sentence and an opinion – as if you forget what you have prepared then you can still gain points – the secret is having a series of verbs in at least 3 tenses and opinions that you have learnt off by heart for those questions when your mind goes blank.
