

STUDENT PRIVACY NOTICE

Why are we giving this to you?

As your school we need to use information about you. We do this for a number of reasons. This form tells you what information we use about you and why we use it. It is very important that information about you is kept safe. We explain below how the Academy keeps your information safe.

If you want to know anything about what we do with information about you then please ask your teacher, or speak to your parent/carer and ask them to contact the Academy. The Academy wants you to feel free to raise any questions at all.

We also have a person called the Data Protection Officer at the Academy. He can answer any questions you have about what the Academy does with your information. If you or your parent/carer want to speak to him, then you can do by contacting:

Miss Hay Telephone 01606 333309 or email DPO@leftwichhigh.com

Policy Statement

We are The County High School, Leftwich. During your time with us, we will use information that we gather in relation to you for various purposes. Information that we hold in relation to you is known as "personal data". This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you which we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after you have left the Academy. Anything that we do with your personal data is known as "processing".

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you, why we process that data, with whom we share this information and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we use about you?

We will collect, hold, share and otherwise use information about you as set out in the boxes below:

Where do we get this information from?

We get this information from:

- You
- Your parents/carers
- Teachers and other staff
- People from other organisations, like doctors or the local authority for example

Why do we use this information?

We use this information for lots of reasons, including:

- To make sure that we give you a good education and to support you through this
- To make sure that we are able to address and support any educational, health or social needs you may have
- To make sure everyone is treated fairly and equally
- To keep you and everyone at the Academy safe and secure
- To deal with emergencies involving you
- To celebrate your achievements
- To provide reports and additional information to your parents/carers

Some of these things we have to do by law. Other things we do because we need to so that we can run the Academy.

Sometimes we need permission to use your information. This includes taking pictures or videos of you to be used on our website or in the newspaper. Before we do these things we will ask you or if necessary your parent/carer for permission.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may need to use the information about you which is special (mentioned above) where there is a specific interest to do so for example health and social care purposes or to provide you with equal opportunities and treatment. We will also use this information where you have given us permission to do so.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

How long will we hold information in relation to our students?

We will hold information relating to you only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. Where you change school we will usually pass your information to your new school.

With whom will we share student information?

We may share information about you to:

- Other schools or educational institutions you may attend or require support from Local Authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education [and/ or ESFA] as required by the law
- Contractors, to enable them to provide an effective service to the school, such as school meal providers or external tutors

Keeping this information safe

It is very important that only people who need to use your information can see it. The Academy keeps your information safe in the following ways: -

Only authorised staff can see the Personal Data

Personal Data is only accessed when it is required

All hard copy Personal Data is kept securely locked when not being used

All electronic files of Personal Data are password protected

Protocols are in place for staff who necessarily remove hard-copy documents and electronic files from the Academy.

Your rights in relation to your information

You can ask to see the information we hold about you. If you wish to do this, you should contact Miss Hay.

You also have the right to:

- Object to what we are doing with your information
- Have inaccurate or incomplete information about you amended
- Ask us to stop doing certain things with your information in some cases
- Ask that decisions about you are not made using automatic systems
- Claim against the Academy in certain circumstances where you have suffered as a result of the Academy breaching your data protection rights

If you feel it necessary to do any of the above, you can speak with Miss Hay. The school does not have to meet all of your requests and we will let you know where we are unable to do so.

Concerns

If you are concerned about how we are using your personal data then you can speak with Miss Hay, or if necessary you or your parent/ carer can contact an outside agency - the Information Commissioner's Office who could also help at <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/raising-concerns/>
