

The County High School Leftwich Celebrate GCSE Success Once Again

Students, families and all at The County High School Leftwich are celebrating well-deserved GCSE results today. These grades reflect the commitment to learning and aspiration to achieve excellence that all CHSL students demonstrate. Today's success is built upon five years of the highest quality education, in a safe and caring environment, which sustains the School's exceptional student outcomes.

Mr Richard Warburton, Headteacher, said: 'It has been lovely to celebrate with students and families. We are really proud of our students and the richly deserved results they collected today. Thank you to all colleagues, parents, carers and Governors who supported students throughout their time here. They have been at the heart of our community and their legacy of kindness and aspiration will inspire those who follow. We wish them every success for the future and hope to see them return as future leaders and role models.'

Mrs Jo Flower, Chair of Governors, commented, "I am very pleased to see so many students achieving these great results. The School's GCSE success enhances the life chances of all students and creates a legacy of social impact for our community. We wish them all the best as they move onto the next exciting phase of their lives. I'd like to thank the Senior Leadership team, teachers and the wider team for their care, commitment and pride in preparing these students for future success."

Mr Matthew Snelson, CEO of the Sir John Brunner Foundation said, "A huge congratulations to The County High School Leftwich students, families and colleagues on these excellent results. Working in partnership continues to be the key to the sustained success that we are all proud of at The County High School Leftwich."

The County High School Leftwich are proud to be at the heart of the community, achieving excellence for the children of the area. We are delighted that students demonstrate our values of Aspiration, Kindness and Pride which will make them great citizens of the future and of whom we will continue to be very proud.
